¹ Figures based on graduates self-reporting data to DeVry.

² Includes base salary and any additional taxable compensation of those graduates who chose to disclose this information. Graduates employed in fields related to their education prior to graduation generally earn more than graduates who accept new employment after graduation. All compensation is reported in U.S. dollars.

³ Excludes graduates who did not report employment related to their education who were continuing their education, employed in non-education related positions and not seeking education related positions, foreign graduates legally ineligible to work in the United States/Canada and those unable to accept career advising assistance because of circumstances such as military deployment, national service (Peace Corps, Teach for America, etc.), participation in a religious mission, incarceration, critical illness or death.

⁴ Excludes graduates who actively sought employment for less than 6 months after graduation and did not become employed.

⁵ Associate and bachelor's degree totals exclude programs no longer accepting applicants. Statistics for graduates of new programs that do not yet have graduates will be available approximately six months after the first classes graduate.

⁶ Figure based on 2013 graduates self-reporting data to DeVry University Career Services who were employed at graduation or actively seeking employment in their field after graduation. Does not include graduates who were not actively seeking employment, as determined by DeVry University Career Services, or who did not report data on employment status to DeVry University Career Services.

We're always here for you.

Career Services professionals across the DeVry system work diligently to partner with graduates to attain positions in their career fields. Although DeVry cannot guarantee employment, we're dedicated to helping guide and motivate our students and graduates through the career process. We work with them on career planning, job interviewing and resumé preparation. Students' career efforts are also supported by an employer database containing information on national and local companies, and virtual and onsite Career Fairs held periodically to enable our students to meet and network with recruiters of DeVry graduates. As a student at DeVry, you'll have the opportunity to partner with one of the most dedicated career services teams in education.

The proof is in the numbers.

In 2013, 90% of DeVry University graduates actively seeking employment had careers in their field within 6 months of graduation.⁶
