

In The United States Court of Federal Claims

Nos. 15-207C; 15-242C; and 15-249C

(Filed: March 11, 2015)

COAST PROFESSIONAL, INC.,
NATIONAL RECOVERIES, INC.,
ENTERPRISE RECOVERY SYS., INC,

Plaintiffs,

v.

THE UNITED STATES,

Defendant,

and

FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT SYS. INC.,
ACCOUNT CONTROL TECHNOLOGY, INC.
CONTINENTAL SERVICE GROUP, INC.

Defendant-Intervenors.

ORDER

Today, a telephonic status conference was held in this case. Participating in the conference were Megan Connor, for plaintiff Coast Professional, Inc.; Edward DeLisle, for plaintiff National Recoveries, Inc.; Peter Eyre, for plaintiff Enterprise Recovery Systems, Inc.; Michael Snyder, for defendant; David Johnson, for defendant-intervenor Financial Management Systems, Inc.; Rory Adams, for defendant-intervenor Account Control Technology, Inc.; and Edward Meyers, for defendant-intervenor Continental Service Group, Inc.

By order this day, the court has consolidated actions Nos. 15-207C, 15-242C, and 15-249C. All further filings shall be filed under the lead case, No. 15-207C.

The schedule set forth in the court's March 5, 2015, and March 6, 2015, orders shall remain in effect. All plaintiffs shall comply with the deadlines set for the original plaintiff; all defendant-intervenors shall comply with the deadlines set for the original defendant-intervenor.

Defendant-intervenors shall be treated as intervenors in the full consolidated action. The protective order issued in this case on March 6, 2015, shall apply to all parties in the consolidated action.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

s/ Francis M. Allegra

Francis M. Allegra

Judge